For the Week of September 22nd through the 29th, 2008

This week Crime Stoppers will pay up to $1000.00 for information leading to the arrest and indictment of the individual involved in assaulting a male subject in the downtown area on Saturday, 9-20-08 (08-18909).

On 9-20-08, a male and female left the Midnite Mine bar at approximately 5:30 p.m., and began walking towards Golden Heart Park located in downtown Fairbanks. Both subjects were approaching the courthouse, when they were approached by a white male (possibly in his late teens), wearing a white shirt, thin build, and 5'9"-6'.

The male asked for a cigarette and when his request was denied, he proceeded to take his skateboard and strike the male (victim) about 7-8 times in the head and face area. The victim was knocked to the ground after the first or second strike, and the suspect continued to beat the victim while he was on the ground.

The suspect was seen possibly running through Golden Hear Park and down 1st Avenue. The victim sustained severe injuries to his eye and medical professionals believe that they will not be able to restore his eyesight and that he will most likely lose his right eye.

The Fairbanks Police Department is asking that anyone with information regarding these thefts contact Lt. Welborn at 450-6566 or Crime Stoppers at 456-CLUE (456-2583).
