PRESS RELEASE

Date: October 20, 2009

Time: 0130 hours

Incident Title: Assault w/Deadly Weapon

Case Number: 09-21996

On Tuesday, October 20, 2009, at 0132 hours, Fairbanks Police responded to the Super 8 Motel at 1909 Airport Way for a report of a shooting. Upon arrival, contact was made with several subjects in the Super 8 lobby, including Peter KHAMPHANH, 19, who had been shot once in the upper left thigh.

Investigation determined that several subjects had traveled from the Anchorage area to Fairbanks. The group was staying at the Super 8 Motel when four individuals entered their room brandishing handguns. Everyone in the room was ordered to the ground and robbed. A struggle ensued which resulted in numerous guns being fired which struck several individuals in the room.

During the melee, KHAMPHANH was struck once in the thigh and had several more bullets pierce the shirt he wore without sustaining further injury. Also injured during the gun fight were Daniel J. MCKINNEY, 26, who sustained wounds to his left hand and stomach. Additionally, Willie G. GRAHAM, 19, was shot through his left shoulder blade and rib cage area. KHAMPHANH was treated and released from FMH, MCKINNEY is listed in stable condition at FMH, and GRAHAM was in the Intensive Care Unit, but listed as stable.

All parties have been identified in this case to include the others who entered the room. Drug activity was also uncovered during the course of this incident. The investigation in this matter is on-going and anyone with information is asked to contact FPD Investigations at 450-6550.
